Dear brother,

Greetings in the name of He who is able to keep us from falling, even Christ our Lord.

I am Fr. Kanu, the interim communications Officer for the Convocation for Anglicans in North America (CANA), which is a mission of the Church of Nigeria-Anglican Communion, and the Vicar of Christ's Ambassador's Anglican Church. As I follow events around the communion, I read about the recent move of St. Andrew's Church under your leadership, and I thought it is worth commending. You have made the bold and right move, you've taken risk, but I want to assure you that He whom you've chosen to follow will never forsake you. The coming days and weeks may be challenging, but be of good cheers for Christ has overcome our fears and uncertainty. I will like for us to keep in touch as together we contend for the faith once delivered to the Saints. Extend my hearty regards to the Saints of the new St. Andrew's ministry.

Thanks and may you all remain blessed.

Yours In His Service,

Fr. Kanu.
